-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 11 April 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 5, 6, and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Burns (4,877,520).

Burns in a one piece collection container assembly discloses an elongate tubular housing (12) having opposed first and second ends (Figs. 1-3); and a solid partition (14,16) positioned within said housing between said first and second ends (Figs. 1-3); said housing defining a volume for specimen (30) collection therein between said first end and said partition; said second end comprising a bottom end below said partition. said bottom end comprising an annular skirt and a semi-spherical bottom (see illustration of Fig. 3 below).

With respect to claim 5, Burns discloses wherein said partition is arcuate in shape to provide said volume for specimen collection with at least a partially rounded bottom portion (Figs. 1-3).

With respect to claim 6, Burns discloses wherein said partition is conical in shape (14).

With respect to claim 19, Burns discloses wherein said semi-spherical bottom is closed (Figs. 1-3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Burns (4,877,520).

With respect to claim 7, Burns discloses the claimed invention except for the housing being a thermoplastic polymer. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the housing of a thermoplastic polymer, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on its suitability for the intended use as a matter of design consideration. In re Leshin, 227 F.2d 197, 125 USPQ 416.

With respect to claim 8, note rejection of claim 7 above.

With respect to claim 9, Burns fails to disclose the claimed dimensions of the housing as set forth by the claim. However, the Applicant has fails to disclose why those particular dimensions are advantageous or what particular problem those specific dimensions solve. Furthermore, depending on the intended use (e.g., how much of a sample is to be collected, the dimensions of the housing will vary and such dimensions may also be derived through routine observation and experimentation and therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to make the housing of any desired dimensions to fit the needs of the user.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 5-6 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Evans et.al. (4,426,295).

Evans in a one-piece collection container assembly discloses: an elongate tubular housing (See illustration of Fig. 1 below) having opposed first and second ends; and a solid partition (see illustration of Fig. 1 below) within said housing between said first and second ends; said housing defining a volume for specimen collection therein between said first end and said partition; said second end comprising a bottom end below said partition, said bottom end comprising an annular skirt and a semi-spherical bottom (see illustration of Fig. 1 below).

With respect to claim to claim 5, Evans discloses said partition is arcuate in shape to provide said volume for specimen collection with at least a partially rounded bottom portion (Figs. 1, 2, 4, 5).

With respect to claim 6, Evans discloses wherein said partition is conical in shape (Figs. 1, 2, 4, 5).

With respect to claim 20, Evans discloses wherein said semi-spherical bottom comprises an opening therein (at 4).

may also be derived through routine observation and experimentation and therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to make the housing of any desired dimensions to fit the needs of the user.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 5-9, 19, and 20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The balance of art is cited to show collection container devices: 6,946,100; 6,878,346; 6,179,787; D447,812; 5,019,243; 5,955,032; 4,600,507; 4,417,981; 3,901,219; 3,786,985; 3,807,955; 3,851,817.
